letts appeared to be energetic and ambitious when he took a job at a shipyard at Stonewall on the Biloxi River, hauling wood chips from the shipyard for five cents a day.

Young Stigletts, the son of Austrian parents, was born on Aug. 9, 1853, on Lorriane Road near where the Mississippi Power Company generating plant stands today, one of 12 children.

Trough hard work and thrift, he would become a community leader and businessman who would be responsible for founding the community of Woolmarket.

By the time he was 13 years old, Stigletts had saved enough money to buy a small second-hand skiff which he used to row to Biloxi to buy groceries for the people in his community.

Then, after several years he went to work on a boat owned by the J.J. Cowart Sawmill at Handsboro. The sawmill used small motor boats and schooners to haul timber from the mill to Ship Island where it was loaded aboard foreign ships.

He was at the sawmill only a short while when he became captain of one of the mill boats, and he soon saved enough money to buy his own schooner, the "J. McAffrey."

Stigletts then built a grocery store on a place he named Stiglett's Lake, and a short while later, he married Mellissa Stewart, daughter of James Stewart, the man who owned much of what is Woolmarket today along the Biloxi River.

His father-in-law gave a tract of land on the lake to Stigletts, and it was here he bought a home from a man named Grayson and established Stigletts' General Merchandise.

Stigletts used his schooner to freight stock to his store. He then purchased another schooner, the "Albert Baldwin," which he used to freight charcoal and turpentine to New Orleans.

During this period, the bridge washed out on the road from Mississippi City to Red Creek, which ran near Stigletts', and he established a ferry service.

As his businesses expanded, he began freighting wool on his schooners to New Orleans. He built a large warehouse where the wool was stored and put in 300-pound bags.

Stigletts allowed people to stay at his place when they conducted business with him. It was a center of activity. It was here in the 1890's that Colonel Hardy made his first speech regarding the building the Gulf and Ship Island Railroad at Gulfport. Some 3,000 people were at Stigletts' to hear the speech.

His wife was credited for the Fourth of July celebrations which were held each year at Stigletts'. Large crowds would attend the annual picnic with the food furnished by Stigletts'.

Activities, which were held on a large "green" or lawn, included games and shooting fireworks. The people came in wagons and boats, and usually a band from Biloxi was on hand.

In 1891, the post office at Stonewall was moved about a mile down the river to Stigletts' and it was at that time that the com-

The future of modern day rock, Southern is in the hands of the Marshall Tucker Band, a former musical protégé of the Allman Brothers.

There are a few reasons why the Marshall Tucker Band, which no longer bears resemblance to the Allmans, has replaced the Macon-based group as the leader of Southern rock. The Allmans, Southern trendsetters in the Seventies, are trying to live on a reputation that over the last three years, they have failed to establish a defined direction.

Lynyrd Skynyrd, the most powerful and influential rock and roll band in America, is in a bit of a rut. Wet Willie has yet to make the album it is creating. The Chevelle Band lacks the energy and inventiveness that must have in order to be taken seriously.

The Marshall Tucker Band has sidestepped the stumbling block of contemporaries by fortunately tripping recently.

The energetic age, in the country albums, has found a distinct identity. Lyrics are rooted in ideas of the South where the country and the commercial both pursued for any cost.

Marshall Tucker Band are heroes of the cowboy to civilize the United States. Artist Frank Zappa's brilliant past. Last Crossin' is a tribute of the nation's fascist chapter in history. The band serves as a counter to the MTBs current "Long Hard Ride."

Unlike Lynyrd Skynyrd, Marshall Tucker Band has always been a pleasing group's music. Marshall Tucker Band's New Life is a return for a rock the group's potent

Preface

We wish to thank all the friends and family members who have contributed time, information, and assistance to make this publication as accurate as possible. We trust that you will find reading this genealogy of your family as rewarding and enriching as it was for us to write and compile it. This history and genealogy consists mainly of the William C. and Rose Cecilia Stewart family. Sisters, brothers, aunts, and uncles are included but their descendants are not fully pursued.

We wish to dedicate this publication to the memory of Marjorie and Ariel Stewart. Without their historical information, we would have been unable to accomplish this endeavor.

W. C. STEWART FAMILY HISTORY

The surname Stewart was probably derived from Walter Fitz-Alan who was "Steward" of Scotland. A steward was a manager of a household or estate. Walter Fitz-Alan's great grandson, Alexander, assumed the name "Stuart" and became the ancestor of the royal family of that name.(1) The spelling of the name Stuart originated in France where the alphabet did not have the "w" letter. There have been various spellings of the name due to language changes, carelessness, or a high degree of illiteracy at that time. Besides Stewart there were also Steward, Stuart, Stuard, and Seward. It has been impossible to trace everyone bearing the name to a common ancestry.

A story has been circulated through the W. C. Stewart family that a man bearing the name Stewart came to America with his sons. As the family migrated to the south, each son settled in a different state. This same story has been heard from unrelated Stewarts in other states. Until a lineage can be proved the south Mississippi Stewarts of Woolmarket can only be traced to William Campbell Stewart, father of James Avant Stewart.(2)

Marjorie Stewart recorded that William Campbell Stewart came to America at the age of eight with his father. He married a girl from Scotland. She died shortly after coming to America. He returned to Scotland and married his first wife's sister. After they returned to America, she also died. He returned again to Scotland and married the third sister. After returning to America she became the mother of the children from which the Harrison county Stewarts were descended. Listed in Marjorie Stewart's report were the children, James Avant, Norman Russell, Benjamin, John, Daniel, Edward, Mary, and Eugene. Mary married a man named Joseph Steele and lived in Crestview, Florida the remainder of her life. Russell and John moved to Harrison county, Mississippi after living in Floralla and Montgomery, Alabama. James Avant came to Mississippi before his brothers and established his home in Harrison county.(2)

According to Marjorie Stewart's family history, William Campbell Stewart settled in Coweta County Georgia.(2) Census records listed a William C. Stewart in Coweta county, Georgia in 1830. Since early census records only recorded the name of the head of the household and not other members, it could not be ascertained that this person was the father of James Avant Stewart and the other known children. Earlier records were not available since Coweta county was only created in 1826 from Indian lands. It was not until 1850 that the census recorded names of spouses, children, and other household members. The name of William C. Stewart was not recorded in the 1850 census of Coweta county. Other Stewarts listed were not this family.

Stewart Family

Many William Stewarts were listed in census records after 1850 as this was a popular name. It could be found in multiplicity in various states but one containing the correct family names and ages was found in the 1850 census of Walton County, Florida. In this census William Stewart was listed as 52 years old and was a farmer. His wife's name was Elizabeth and she was 53. Their birthplace was listed as North Carolina; however, this could have been where they settled in America. Also listed were their children; James as 21 years old, a carpenter, from Georgia; Daniel as 17 and born in Georgia; Norman as 13 and born in Alabama. Since the ages of James and Norman correlated with their birth dates and since Mary Stewart Steele and her family were also listed in the same census, it could be assumed this was the correct William Stewart.

William Stewart could not be found in the 1860 census of Walton County, Florida. However, it was revealed in the 1860 census of Covington County, Alabama that William and Elizabeth had moved there. He was listed as 62 and she was 63. No children were listed. However, three additional people were listed as living in the household. They were Catherine Shaw, age 16, Amanda Shaw, age 12, and Eda Shaw, age 11. They were all from Georgia. William and Elizabeth were not listed in the 1870 census of this county. Daniel Stewart, who was 17 in the 1850 census of Walton County, Florida, was found in Covington County, Alabama in the 1860 census. He had married and was listed as Daniel A. with wife, Elizabeth. Their ages were listed as 26 and 23. No children were listed which confirmed Marjorie Stewart's record that Daniel had no children.(2) They were also listed in that county in the 1870 census. They were probably residing in Floralla, Alabama since the town was in Covington County and approximately 20 - 30 miles north of Crestview Florida.

According to Ariel Stewart's personal writings, William Campbell Stewart was buried at Bethel, Florida in Walton County. In a personal communication with the Mayor of Crestview, Florida it was learned that the Bethel community, located north of Crestview, was destroyed in a Civil War battle and all that remained was the Old Bethel Cemetery. However, according to the Steele Family History one of Mary Steele's grandchildren was born at Bethel, Florida in 1882. As of 1993 no Bethel, Florida existed. A visit to the cemetery revealed many old graves with unreadable markers. The Genealogical Society of Okaloosa County, Florida published in 1993 a listing of Okaloosa county cemeteries. Okaloosa county was formed from parts of Walton and Santa Rosa counties. Among the many cemeteries listed was the Old Bethel Cemetery. There were 68 unmarked graves. Many were listed as concrete slabs, bricks, or simply dirt mounds with stakes. Only two Stewart graves were listed, Eula Adell Stewart Brooks (1890-1982) and Louise Stewart (1891-1959). Of the marked graves listed, many were born in the early 1800's. The oldest and nearest the birth date of William Stewart (1798) was 1802. The earliest death proven by the existing markers was 1881. This proved that the cemetery existed and contained burials corresponding to the age group of William Stewart. If William Campbell Stewart was buried there, a monument recording his burial could not be found.

As James Advant Stewart married Margaret Holley of Harrison County, Mississippi in 1852, he probably moved from Florida shortly after 1850. His name and family were listed in the Harrison County census records of 1860, 1870, and 1880. Even though a fire destroyed all census records of 1890, it had to be assumed that he was still residing in Harrison county. James Avant died in 1895 and was buried in Coalville Cemetery. His occupation was listed as a carpenter in the 1860 and 1870 census records and as a county surveyor in the 1880 census. The census records listed his home as Georgia as well as the home of his parents. Margaret (Holley) Stewart was listed as being born in Mississippi. Her father was listed as being from New York and her mother from Louisiana. In the 1860 census of Harrison county Rowana Holley, age 14, was listed with the James Avant Stewart household. Her birthplace was recorded as Mississippi. Also listed in the same household was William Holley, age 50, a sailor, originally from New York. It could be assumed that these residents were Margaret (Holley) Stewart's sister and father.

Examination of the 1850 census of Harrison county, Mississippi revealed that Margaret Holley was the daughter of William and Adale Holley. The spelling of her sister's name was different. In this census it was Rovina. The children were listed as Nicholas, age 17, Margaret, age 15, Alfred (?), age 13, Daphne, age 11, William, age 10, and Rovina, age 4. Mr. Holley was listed as a mariner and from New York. His wife, age 38, was listed as from Mississippi, although another census recorded that she was from Louisiana. According to the Catholic Baptismal Records Mary Rovina Holley was baptized in 1871 and born in 1846. She was the daughter of William and Adela (Richard) Holley.

Members of the W. C. Stewart family of Woolmarket have often told how "grandpa" hunted with Martin Van Buren and had a hunting horn that Van Buren had given him. The hunting horn and story were related through the generations. Since Van Buren was born in 1782 and died in 1862, it is not known if William Campbell Stewart or William Holley was the grandfather who had the hunting horn originally. Since William Holley was from New York and Margaret's father, it could be assumed that he was the "grandpa" who had the hunting horn.

MARY STEWART STEELE

Mary Elizabeth Stewart was the daughter of William Campbell and Elizabeth Stewart. According to the Steele family genealogy Mary Stewart was born in 1826 and married Joseph Steele who was born in 1823. No marriage or death dates were listed.(16) The history recorded that Mary and some of her children were buried at Ebenezer Cemetery near Laurel Hills, Florida. The cemetery was located on Old Ebenezer Road and a few miles past the New Ebenezer Baptist Church. Signs on Highway 85 north of Crestview were followed to the church. The cemetery contained many graves of the Steele family. One monument contained the name of Elizabeth Steele, born in 1829 and died in 1915. This might have been Mary or another relative as Joseph was one of 13 children. No other members of the Stewart family were found buried in the cemetery. The Ebenezer Cemetery was listed in the Okaloosa County Florida Cemeteries. One adult grave contained an unmarked concrete slab. Many of the children and family members of Mary and Joseph Steele were buried in this cemetery.(21) A picture of Joseph and Mary Steele was copied from the Steele Family History and placed in this report.

The children of Mary and Joseph Steele as listed in the 1860 census of Walton County, Florida were Elizabeth, age 10; William, age 9; Catherine, age 7; Peter, age 6; Nancy, age 4; Edward, age 3; Joseph, age 2; and Mary, age 2/12 (6 months). The Steele Family History listed the children as Elizabeth (Liza), died single at age 95 (1850-1945); William (1851- ?) married _____ Carter; Catherine (1853-1921) married James S. Moore (1843-1922), both buried at New Travelers Rest Cemetery at the Primitive Baptist Church near Laurel Hill, Florida; Peter (1854- ?) married Amanda; Jane (1856- ?) married Buck Davis (This could be the Nancy listed in the 1860 census as the age is correct.); Edward S. (1857-1928) married Amanda Baggett (1860-1917), both buried at Ebenezer Cemetery; Amanda (1861-1920) married Moses H. Davidson (1849-1927), both buried at Ebenezer Cemetery; Anna E. (1863-1894) married R. A. (Rick) Campbell (1864-1927), both buried at Ebenezer Cemetery; Eolene (1865- ?) married James L. Hart; John S. (1867-1925) married Clementine Campbell (1869-1938), both buried at Ebenezer Cemetery; Phillip James Daniel (1869-1941) married Nora Clary (1874-1963), both buried at Ebenezer Cemetery; Carrie (1871-1941) married James Tucker (1871-1932), both buried at Ebenezer Cemetery.(16, 21)

The Steele Family report did not contain the names of Joseph born in 1858, or Mary born in 1859 as recorded in the 1860 census of Walton County, Florida. The Okaloosa County Florida Cemeteries listed Mary T. Steele (1860-1862) and Joanna (might be Joseph) Steele (1859-1862) as buried in Ebenezer Cemetery.(21) The 1860 census also contained two other people residing in the Steele household. Listed were Nancy Shaw, from Georgia, age 13 and James A. Hart, also from Georgia, age 21, who was the community school teacher.

NORMAN RUSSELL STEWART

At this time only Norman Russell and Daniel Stewart can be documented as being brothers of James Avant Stewart by personal communication with Mrs. Charles (Mazie) Stewart and from the 1850 Walton County, Florida census. Norman Russell came to Harrison County in 1888 after living near Marksville, Louisiana. He was married to Joanna Frances Baker. They had seven children. Lucinda married John Henry Patten. Benjamin Russell married Margaret Peterson. Edward Lee married Florence Virginia Carraway. John W. married Daisy King. George Stephen married Maggie Cruthirds. Joseph Eugene married Watta "Scal" King. James Walter married Ruby Lee Vick.(3)

Norman Russell Stewart homesteaded a quarter of a section of land five miles northwest of Lyman, Mississippi on the Little Biloxi River. He logged the timber from the land and floated it down the river to a sawmill at Lorraine, Mississippi. His son, Edward Lee Stewart, learned the trade and worked as a contract logger. After working his way into Alabama and Florida, he married and returned to Mississippi in 1905 to work for Dantzler Lumber Company at Cedar Lake Mill.(3) After returning to Florida for a number of years, Edward Lee once again came to Lyman to work for Ingram Day Lumber Company and later for himself. He retired in 1942 and died in 1955.(3)

Norman Russell remained in Harrison county. Since he had served in Company D, 6th Alabama Infantry of the Confederate States of America during the Civil War, he was entitled for residency at Beauvoir. He resided there only three months before he died 3/18/1915 at the age of 78. He was buried at the Beauvoir Cemetery. (Personal communication; Cemetery records). He was born in 1837. His wife outlived him by many years and was buried at Finley Cemetery in Harrison county. She was born in 1847 and died in 1931. Their only daughter died shortly after her father (7/17/1915) and was buried at Finley Cemetery.

All of the sons, Benjamin Russell, Edward Lee, John W., George Stephen, and Joseph Eugene, resided in Harrison county. Their families became influential citizens in the service of the community. Many of their descendants still reside in Harrison county or nearby.

ROYAL LAFAYETTE STEWART

Royal Lafayette Stewart was a cousin of the Stewarts and attended many family reunions. His father's name was not recorded and how he was related was not known. According to the 1900 and 1920 census records of Harrison county, he came from Alabama and was born in either 1857 or 1858. He died in 1947 and was buried at Evergreen Cemetery at Gulfport, Mississippi. The cemetery records showed that he died at age 94. This would have him born in 1853. He married Mary Elizabeth Trammell of Georgia. She was listed in the 1900 census as being born in 1866. However, in the 1920 census her age was listed as 58 which would make her being born in 1862. She also was buried in Evergreen Cemetery and their records showed her as dying at age 60 in 1920 which would make her born in 1860. Even the children's ages had a discrepancy between the 1900 and 1920 census records. According to the 1900 census one daughter was listed as being born in 1899 in Mississippi and the 1920 census listed her as being born in 1902. If this was true she should not have been recorded in the 1900 census.

In the 1920 census Royal Stewart listed his home place as well as that of his mother and father as being Alabama. His wife's home place was listed as Georgia. The census listed her father as being from Georgia and her mother as being from Virginia. Royal Stewart lived for many years in Gulfport after his wife's death before moving to Waco, Texas. One daughter, Clyde Stewart, was listed in the 1900 census as being born in 1885. She remained in Gulfport and married Harry B. Nunn. She, her husband, and one child were buried next to her father and mother at Evergreen cemetery, Gulfport, Mississippi. According to the cemetery records Clyde died in 1975 at the age of 88 which would make her being born in 1887. Her husband died in 1963 and their daughter, Mary Elizabeth died in 1931 at age 15.

Other children of Royal and Mary Elizabeth Stewart were Harold, William Trammel, Mabel, Elizabeth (Bessie), Martha Louise, and James Haywood.

Harold became a dentist and resided in Waco, Texas. According to the Stewart Reunion minutes he was well remembered for furnishing ice cream and cash prizes. The other children moved to various locations in Texas.

JAMES AVANT STEWART

James Avant Stewart was born April 11, 1829 and died February 12, 1895. His wife, Margaret Holley was born September 27, 1835 and died October 3, 1895. These were documented by tombstone inscriptions. He was listed as 31 with birthplace as Georgia in the 1860 Harrison county census while his wife was listed as 24 with birthplace as Mississippi. Also listed were children born prior to 1860. William C. Stewart was age 6. Mary Elizabeth was age 5. John Bowen was age 1. They lived on the Biloxi River at what was called "moccasin point" and now known as "Shore Crest". They moved after the birth of several children because of the mosquitoes, flies, and knats which kept the children sick.(2) They resided near Stiglet's old place in Woolmarket until William was about eleven. They homesteaded 160 acres in the yellow pine forest three miles above Woolmarket. James Avant was the county surveyor of Harrison county. Some of his markers can still be found and are still used today. James and Margaret had eleven children, eight daughters and three sons.

The children were William C., Mary Elizabeth, Melissa, James Roy Bowen, Burisa Theresa, Margaret Olivia, John A., Annie E., Elam R., Letitia Edda, and Florian A. These children became influential citizens and remained nearby. James Avant and Margaret (Holley) Stewart were buried in Coalville Cemetery at Woolmarket. Of the eleven children one (Annie E.) was adopted. Burisa Theresa and Margaret Olivia were twins. John A. died single at age of 24. Only two children were buried in cemeteries other than Coalville. Elam was buried at Oaklawn Cemetery in McHenry, Mississippi. Letitia was buried at Evergreen Cemetery in Gulfport, Mississippi.

WILLIAM C. STEWART

William C. Stewart was born January 13, 1854 and died November 10, 1936. He lived all his life in the Woolmarket community. He married Rose Cecilia Parker of Oaklawn Plantation on Parker Creek in 1877.

When asked what the initial "C" stood for in his name, Mr. Stewart would say his name was William Crazy Stewart. Actually it only was an initial with no middle name. It probably was supposed to have been Campbell after his grandfather but was never documented and remained only as an initial.

He was a leader of the community and was instrumental in organizing the first consolidated school in Mississippi at Woolmarket. He served as a trustee for many years. Not much had been recorded of his early childhood but it was known that he spent most of his active life at sea. Being a schooner captain of the schooners "McCaffery" and "Ramsey", he experienced many hardships and spent long hours away from home.(4) The McCaffery and Ramsey schooners, owned by Joseph Stiglets, were used for transportation of supplies, sheep wool, and timber to and from Woolmarket and New Orleans, Louisiana. The McCaffery was also used as a dredge boat for oystering. In 1928 it caught fire while docked at Mavar Dock in east Biloxi. The wreck was towed to Deer Island where the elements could finish the job. In 1985 two young men recovered the fourteen-foot prow of the schooner and hoped to place it in the Magnolia Museum in Biloxi, Mississippi. A painting of the "McCaffery" schooner by Joe Moran now hangs in the home of Alvah T. Stewart, Jr., grandson of W. C. Stewart.

When William C. Stewart was at home, he entertained the family with stories of his voyages. When not occupied with sailing, he worked at the Scarborough sawmill which was located near the homestead. He received a certificate of homestead for 160 acres of land in Woolmarket on August 3, 1882. This certificate was signed by the president of the United States, Chester A. Arthur. This original homestead deed has been preserved and hangs in the home of his grandson, Alvah T. Stewart, Jr. The 160 acres remained in the Stewart family. Parcels of twenty acres were later deeded to several of his children and at present date some of this original land is owned by his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stewart built a house of logs consisting of one large room with a mud fire place, a kitchen across the back which served as dining room and storage and a front porch with a room on one end that served as an extra bedroom. The family lived there until Alvah was born. Since the family had outgrown the house, James Avant Stewart swapped houses with them as his house was larger. The W. C. Stewart family lived there until it burned in approximately 1914 when Blanche was 17 years old. Then another house was built which remained the home of Ariel and Marjorie Stewart until 1985 when a great-granddaughter, Amy Stewart Hickman, and her husband purchased it. They have remodeled the inside and are raising their family in it.

Mr. W. A. Welch recorded in the obituary of W. C. Stewart that his life was one of simplicity. He was kind and gentle with a deep sense of humor and jovial spirit. He was quiet and slow in expressing his thoughts on important topics. After deliberation his words were final and his word was his bond. He was conservative but firm.(4) Marjorie Stewart recorded that he was a "strong disciplinarian and actions spoke louder than words..." She also recorded that few family problems existed when he was around. He would say, "Do you see the corner of my eye?" This meant to move and get out fast.(5)

Mr. Stewart was an active member of the Coalville Methodist Church. Before his death he saw all his children develop into useful citizens in the service of the church and community.

ROSE CECILIA PARKER

William C. Stewart married a local girl from Parker Creek area, Rose Cecilia Parker, on April 19, 1877. They had an afternoon wedding at the home of James Avant Stewart, the groom's father. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alex Scarborough. The six attendants were Martha Walker, Melissa Stewart, Emily Smith, Robert Turan, Pete Stewart, and Ursand Parker. An elaborate dinner was served on long tables on the lawn. Dancing followed the ceremony and lasted through the night with old time fiddling. Rose Cecilia Parker (August 28, 1857-June 21, 1935) was the eight child of Rose Cecilia (Fayard) and James Madison Parker. She had four sisters and three brothers. She was christened a Catholic but later joined, with her husband, the Coalville Methodist Church and spent many years in its service. When her children were too young to walk the long distance to the church for Sunday School, she organized and conducted one for several years at the Oak Head school house near her home (now the northwest corner of Old Woolmarket and John Lee roads). She was a familiar figure at Palmer Creek camp meeting as well as Perry and New Prospect camps. Attending all Palmer Creek meetings but one, she criticized the minister at the last meeting she attended for not conducting more alter services.(6) Her whole life was devotion and prayer, kneeling beside her bed every night before retiring.

According to Marjorie Stewart, her mother was a queen in the home. She mentioned that Rose Cecilia Stewart was steadfast in her belief and candid in convictions. "Love, firmness, and kindness dominated her life with an abiding faith in God's love asking divine guidance in all things however large or small."(5) Mrs. Stewart managed the farm, doing the planting and harvesting of the crops as well as tending to the stock. The family was a close one. They came to the dining table three times daily and thanked the Heavenly Father for the food that He had provided. Then at the close of the day the family met for Bible reading and prayer with each one sharing in the evening devotion. Their home life was the center of school, community, and church activities.

The union of William C. Stewart and Rose Cecilia Parker was blessed with eleven children. There were four boys and seven girls but one of the girls died in infancy. The children were Margaret Rosalie (1878-1965); Lillie L. (1881-1919); Grover Cleveland (1885-1978); Julius Vernon (1887-1957); Alvah Theron (1890-1965); Marjorie Perle (1893-1975); Ariel Cecile (1895-1993); Allie Blanche (1897-1992); and Cecil Joseph (1900-1990). All were married except Marjorie and Ariel. Lillie was the first to die while helping with the influenza outbreak in Louisiana. She was buried in Louisiana and later transferred to Coalville Cemetery. Ariel Stewart outlived all her brothers and sisters. She was 98 on Feb.26, 1993 and died July 14, 1993.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stewart celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary on April 19, 1927. At that time all their children except for Lillie were alive. Mr. Stewart wore a white linen suit while Mrs. Stewart wore a white linen dress that Mazie Richards Taylor made for her. The Rev. Louis Jordon performed the renewal of vows ceremony before 157 guests. Five of the original six attendants were present. They received many gifts but most memorable was the $50.00 in gold pieces. A gold wedding cake made by the daughters Marjorie and Blanche was enjoyed by all who attended.(7)

ROSE CECILIA FAYARD PARKER

The mother of Rose Cecilia Stewart was also named Rose Cecilia. She was the first child of Alexis and Martha (Ryan) Fayard. She was born in 1815 and died in 1887. Either before or after her birth Alexis and Martha Fayard moved to the property on Parker Creek where Rose Cecilia grew into womanhood. She married James Madison Parker of Baltimore, Maryland in 1837. From this union there were eight children. Matilda (1839-1900) married George Armstrong; Mary Martha (1841-1910) married Louis Groue; Lavinia (1843-1894) married John Baptiste Moran; Emily (1845-1912) never married; William E. (1847-1893) married Anna Quevas; James M., Jr. (1850-1928) married Elizabeth Craven; Ursand A. (1853-1930) married Ada Nelson of England; and Rose Cecilia (1857-1935) married William C. Stewart. All of the children grew up at Oaklawn Plantation in Harrison county.

Marjorie Stewart wrote an article about her grandmother (Rose Cecilia Fayard Parker). Part of it was published in "A Genealogy, the Moore-Cannette Family of North Biloxi." (10) She recorded how her grandmother grew corn, potatoes, hay, cane, cotton, and small vegetables with the help of 16 slaves. During the Civil War the Union soldiers, known as Yankees, were camped near the bricked-up well. The soldiers asked if Mrs. Parker would cook bread for them. Since supplies were short, the Yankees supplied the necessary flour and other ingredients. Mrs. Parker baked and fed the soldiers. To show their gratitude the Union soldiers left several bags of flour and other supplies for the family when they moved out. They were nice and kind guarding the home place at night while camped there. Nothing was stolen nor did they molest any of the animals or destroy the property. (10)

Because the Union army was looking for conscripts for their army, James Parker took his son Bill, who was 16, to the islands in the Gulf. This way he could prevent the Yankees from taking his son.

After the Civil War ended, Mrs. Parker freed her slaves. Some never left home choosing to live, work, and maintain their cabins on Oaklawn until death. They were laid to rest in the family plot about three hundred feet from the home place. (10)

ALEXIS FAYARD

Alexis Fayard (1788-1878) was born and reared in Biloxi, Mississippi. He was the fourth child of Louis and Martha (Gargare) Fayard. The family went to New Orleans, Louisiana to baptize Alexis. He must have learned fishing and growing crops from his father. This type of work kept him occupied during his life. He married his first cousin, Martha Ryan (1785-1893). Their mothers were sisters. After the marriage, they moved and homesteaded 640 acres of land on the Tchoutecabuffa River known as Oaklawn or Oaklawn Plantation. The home, which was built by Alexis Fayard, was started in 1815 and finished in 1830. (Personal communication, Airey Lefevre) Part of the property and the house is now owned by Airey Lefevre. When renovating the house he maintained the original material in the house, leaving the staircase and fire place intact. The old style home has retained its splendor situated on a plateau over looking the waters of the river and Parker Creek. It is still surrounded by stately old oak trees laden with Spanish moss and is located on Oaklawn Drive in Woolmarket.

Six girls and five boys were the children of Alexis and Martha Fayard. The first birth was twin girls, Rose Cecilia (1815-1887) who married James Madison Parker and Virginia (1815-1846) who married Joseph Moran. Louis (1825-?) married Martha Bosarge. Octavia (no dates) married Thomas Latimer. Gilbert (1826-1861) married Nancy Jane Bennett whom he divorced and remarried Julia Bosarge. David (?-1864) married Martha Aquilla Bennett. Melanie (no dates) married Antoine Thomas. Caroline Louise (no dates) married Francis Formost. Mary Armine (1840-1911) married Captain John Louis Kautter (Crowder/Krautter) from Germany. Sylvan (Sylvester) (1828-1907) married Mary Ann Rushing. Ursand (1829-1861) marriage was not recorded. (7, 8)

Joe Moran, a local ship builder and artist in Biloxi, reported that his great grandmother was Virginia Fayard. He stated that she was a twin and married Joseph Moran. (Personal communication)

A copy of a letter written to Emily Parker from her Uncle Gilbert Fayard has been added to this historical account. This young man served in the Confederate States of America (CSA) Army in Company E, 20th Regiment, Infantry of Mississippi Volunteers known as Adam's Brigade or Adam's Rifles along with his brothers David, Sylvester, and Ursand. This regiment fought as a part of Loring's Division. Company E was mustered into service at Handsboro on May 20, 1861. Of the more than 1200 who went from the Mississippi Gulf Coast to fight for the Confederates only 58 returned after four years of constant fighting. (11) Gilbert wrote of returning to hear Emily sing a song printed on the paper that he used for the letter. He never returned as he died at Sewell Mountain, Virginia in 1861. David also died in the Civil War and was buried at La Grange, Georgia. Ursand died at Meadow Bluff, Virginia in 1861. Sylvester returned from the Civil War and married Mary Ann Rushing. Both were buried at Coalville Cemetery. Also serving with CSA was another brother, Louis. He was in the Mississippi 9th Calvary, Company D, and was buried with his wife in the Parker/Fayard Cemetery.

LOUIS FAYARD

Louis Fayard was born January 29, 1758 to Jean Fayard dit La Lancette and Francoise Fisseau who were married in 1744. Francoise was born in 1728 and was the daughter of Nicolas Fisseau and Marianne La Garenne (Lagare) whose marriage was recorded in New Orleans in 1722. She was born in the Louisiana Colony. Probably Jean Fayard dit La Lancette was also born in the Louisiana Colony but this was not proved. He probably was the son of La Lancette who was a soldier and who traveled with his wife aboard the ship "Le Phillipe" to the new world as recorded in Louis Conrad's book, "First Families of Louisiana." (12)

The name La Lancette was an added name, often preceded by "dit" which was French for "known as or called." The names Fayard and La Lancette were used interchangeably. In the Bay St. Louis-Delisle area of Mississippi the La Lancette was used until the 1820's after which it disappeared. (12)

It was not known when the Fayard family moved to the Mississippi Gulf coast area. Louis was one of nine children. They were Marie Anne (b. 1744) who was married first to Francois Bourgeois and after his death married Etienne Peroge (Perrache). Marie Louise (b. 1746) married Francois Carco and then Jean Baptiste Boudrau (Ladner). These two girls were born in Natchitoches, Louisiana. Pierre I (b. 1749) died early in life. Jean Baptiste (b. 1752) married Angelique Ladner. Andre (b. 1755) was not heard of after baptism. Louis (b. 1758) married Martha Gargaret. Pierre II (b. 1760) married Suzanne Carco. Since there were two Pierre names, probably one died in childhood or infancy. It was not unusual to use the name again. Felicite (b. 1762) married Baptiste Fabre. She lived in New Orleans and moved to Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. Francois, the last child, had an unknown history as the record was partially destroyed. (12)

Louis Fayard married Martha Gargaret (Gargare) in 1781 and built his home at the corner of Magnolia and Water streets in Biloxi, Mississippi. The house is still standing and is the site of Mary Mahoney's Resturant. (8)

Martha was the daughter of Michael Gargaret and Martha Paquet. Martha Paquet was the daughter of Pierre Paquet and Magdelaine Boudrau who was an Indian.(13)

Louis and Martha Fayard had seven children. Pierre (Louis) married Louise Necaise and lived in the Bay St. Louis area. Judith married widower Andres Durocher of New Orleans. They lived in New Orleans and Judith died there. Jacques married Cecilia Fayard, his first cousin. Their fathers were brothers. Then he married Gertrude Ryan who also was his first cousin. Their mothers were sisters. Alexis married Martha Ryan who was his first cousin. Their mothers were sisters. Ursin married Genevieve Ryan who was his first cousin. Their mothers were sisters. Nothing more than the birth was recorded of their last child, Jean Baptiste.(12)

One remarkable event in the family's long history was an act by the Louis Fayard family. On November 27, 1844 a piece of land was deeded to the city of Biloxi for the purpose of a burial ground. The land was described as "A piece of parcel of land lying and being in the western part of the Village of Biloxi in the County aforesaid, having one arpent front on the seashore or Gulf of Mexico by four arpents in depth from the top of the bank, bounded on the East by the property of Chapman, on the South by the seashore aforementioned, on the West by the property of Mr. Briggs and on the North by the property of the late Louis Fayard's estate". Today this is known as the Old Biloxi Cemetery. Many of the tombstone inscriptions are in French.(12)

GENEALOGY OF STEWART FAMILY

NUMBERING SYSTEM

A number-decimal system has been used. The Progenitor of the genealogical line has been assigned the number 1. His children were assigned numbers according to their order of birth, if known, and added to the progenitor's number. Their number became 1.1., 1.2., 1.3., etc. Each child's children were numbered and added to the parent's code. Children of 1.1. became 1.1.1., 1.1.2., etc. All of the descendants of each person were given before another was started. The number of decimals in your code number will give you the number of generations you would be from the progenitor. Stepchildren were not numbered as descendants but were listed as children.

Since only four of the eight children of William Campbell and Elizabeth Stewart had ages documented by written records, the numbering of their children started with Mary. Numbers were assigned as follows:

1.0	William Campbell Stewart
1.1	Mary Stewart Steele
1.2	James Avant Stewart
1.3	Daniel A. Stewart
1.4	Norman Russell Stewart

FAMILY HONORS

Many family members have obtained achievements and honors in their careers and lives. To single out each one is beyond the scope of this historical account. However, one is worth mentioning.

ARIEL STEWART

On June 2, 1985 Miss Ariel Stewart was honored by the Coalville Methodist Church for her outstanding contributions to the church and community. She gave many years of dedicated service for the Lord as an ardent church member and community school teacher. Perhaps, Pauline Taylor best summed up the lady as we know simply as "A" or Aunt A. Quoted below is the poem Pauline wrote for Ariel Stewart's recognition service.

Lady "A"

"The Lady we honor here today
Is known to many as simply "A"
Her talents are many to name just a few
She plays the piano and autoharp too.

Many students she taught are with us today,
to us she is special-she has shown the way.
Reading, writing and arithmetic were the order of the day,
With time left over to run and play.

She is proud of her family
And every right to be-
Pa Billy, Ma Cecile, lawyers, and judge and teachers
Make a fine family tree.

Much advice she has given,
The Lady is no fool.
When in doubt, she just practices
The Golden Rule.

Little House on the Prairie has nothing on her.
She is used to hard work; lanterns, horses and buggies
Were commonplace at Dogwood Fork.

Her strength never falters.
She is on the right course,
Looking forward, instead of backward,
She made the right choice."

STORY OF HOME LIFE

BY ARIEL AND MARJORIE STEWART

"I was born into the family of William C. and Rose Cecilia (Parker) Stewart at the old Stewart home which my grandfather, James Avant Stewart, settled over a hundred years ago. Eleven (11) children were born into our family, consisting of four (4) boys and seven (7) girls. One sister died in infancy; the others grew to be strong, active healthy children. Our home life was plain and simple, yet great for God was placed at the head of our home where his love and guidance were sought in directing our daily living. Mother Nature, too, provided beautiful surroundings for our living in a wide open pine forest which we all enjoyed to the fullest.

Our home life was very much like a bee hive, with plenty activity. Much work was to be done on time and in order with each child sharing and doing the part assigned to them. Through work we were taught many important values in life; to give, to take, to defend, and to love each other.

To me, my mother was a queen in the home, who ruled her throne well; creating, guiding, directing, and stressing the great values in life through Christian love and devotion. She was steadfast in her belief and candid in her convictions. Love, firmness, and kindness dominated her life with an abiding faith in God's love, asking divine guidance in all things however large or small. Her Christian living in the home caused me to want to follow and serve my savior, too.

My dad, prince of a man, was great in every way, quiet and peaceful and soft spoken, but firm and courageous in his convictions. He, too, was a strong disciplinarian and actions spoke louder than words with him. There were few family problems when he as around, for all he would say was, "Do you see the corner of my eye?" Well, we knew that meant to move and go fast. And we did.

Dad, being Captain of a schooner, kept him away from home much of the time, so my mother with the children kept the small farm work going, planting and harvesting the crop and tending the stock. Our living was made mostly at home, so we children learned to appreciate mother earth and what she gave us.

Our family life was a close one. We came to the dining table three times daily thanking our Heavenly Father for food that He had so graciously provided for us and we all ate what was put in our plate. At the close of day, we sat in a group for Bible reading and prayer, with each one sharing in the evening devotion. Home life was the center of living with

Church, school, and community life becoming our activities, with good neighbors and friends participating also.

My mother, being a devout Christian, had the children in Church and Sunday School often as she could. Sunday was a Holy Day in our home and we were taught to respect it as such. As time went by, we all grew up and began spreading out.

My life was spent in my community teaching boys and girls. I spent thirty-eight (38) years in the school room with some of the finest children ever. It was a great experience and joy to learn and share some of the great truths about life and how to live it with them. No two children were alike, each had their personal characteristics and could pull a prank that astounded the teacher! None were bad, just wigglesome and in need of love, love, love!!! In teaching, I learned to understand parents and children, so we had few discipline problems and a little shingle in a firm hand could easily solve all the problems that arose.

It was a wonderful privilege and great joy to have served and worked in Woolmarket Community, Coalville Church, and Palmer Creek Association, with such fine family, parents, my sisters, brothers, my kinfolk, friends, and neighbors. Woolmarket with good homes, church, schools, stands as a symbol of what my grandfather and yours worked for. The history, long and glorious, dates back many years and has given to people something to convey, both spiritually and materially. I have loved my home, people, and church, and my great Country, America."

Ariel Cecile Stewart, born 2/26/1895 and died 7/14/1993, lived all her life in Woolmarket. She was laid to rest in the Coalville Cemetery at Woolmarket July 16, 1993 at 11:00 AM.

Marjorie Perle Stewart, born 2/14/1893 and died 11/6/1975, lived most of her life in and near Woolmarket. She was buried in the Coalville, Cemetery at Woolmarket.

The story of their home life was read at both of their funerals.

COALVILLE

The Coalville community derived its name when the making of charcoal was a thriving industry. Located on the banks of the Biloxi river the charcoal could be loaded on schooners and shipped down the river. The charcoal was made from pine trees by slowly burning the wood in a kiln without much air. The resulting charred wood became known as charcoal, an excellent source of fuel.(2) Later the community was part of Woolmarket.

The Coalville Methodist Church was established in 1852 on land donated by Samuel and Huldey Mitchell. The first legal title to the land was granted to Ok La Ho Tubb, a Choctaw Indian. This was recorded in the tract book of original entries, Book I, page 63, Records of Harrison County. A one room building was erected with a "lean-to" where servants kept the children and listened to the sermon. The first minister was Rev. George T. Vicker and was in the Biloxi charge. Through out the years the church has been transferred to different charges.

1854	Seashore District
1855	Black Creek Charge
1860	Augustas Charge
1861	Flint Creek Charge
1862	Handsboro Charge
1864	Black Creek Charge
1865	Red Creek Charge
1867	White Plains Charge

The early church which also served as a school was erected where the Coalville Cemetery is now located. It was called "Old Rough and Ready" and made of roughly hewn logs. In 1869 another building was erected with a seating capacity of 100. It had a recessed porch and slender columns which remained until 1967. The lumber for the building was donated by Lum King. William C. Stewart built the benches used in the church. A steeple and bell were built in 1890. The bell was tolled for funerals. In 1930 four Sunday school rooms and the front entrance were added by the efforts of the ladies missionary society. In 1959 a brick education building was built with more Sunday school rooms attached in 1961. The new church sanctuary which cost $45,000 was built after the old one was torn down in 1967.(15, 19, & Personal writings of Ariel Stewart)

The consecration service of the sanctuary of Coalville Methodist Church was recorded by Miss Ariel Stewart. Part of her notes are quoted in the report entitled "Coalville Sanctuary."

"COALVILLE SANCTUARY"

"The new sanctuary at Coalville Church was consecrated in special service at 11:00 AM, Sunday, March 10, 1968. Construction was started on sanctuary July, 1967. The building has a seating capacity of about 350 and is located on the site of old, original church which was erected in 1852. Bishop Edward J. Pendergraff of the Mississippi Methodist Conference conducted the office for the consecration, assisted by Reverend Seth Grandberry, Seashore District, Superintendent and the church pastor, the Reverend T. Russell Fletcher. Over 400 persons attended the consecration services." (Personal writings of Ariel Stewart).

Miss Stewart also wrote that the timbers of the old church were used to make a cross that was hung on the wall behind the choir loft. This cross made by Albert Felsher measures three feet wide and eight feet tall. Several gavels were made from the old church lumber and presented to Bishop Pendergraff, Reverend Harry Reeves, Reverend C. L. Miller, Reverend Fletcher, and Reverend Grandberry.

The colonial style sanctuary was built by Plummer Construction Company using a red brick exterior topped with a steeple of 35 feet. The bell from the original church was installed in the new steeple. The arched ceiling of the white interior contained oak trim with oak pews and pulpit furniture.

The 116th anniversary of the founding of Coalville Methodist Church was celebrated May 26, 1968. Many pastors have served the church since its organization. The first pastor was George T. Vickers. The Reverend Michael Cox prayed a blessing on the men leaving for the Civil War. Some never returned. A silver pitcher, used in the baptismal service, had the names of Ellis Walker and Homer Cowart engraved on it in memory of them and has seen continuous use, even today. The communion service was given to the church by the Ramsay sisters in memory of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ramsay. One minister was well remembered by the membership. Reverend Louis Fayard, a missionary circuit rider, came to Woolmarket in 1872. His influence was remembered and revered in the community. Many names of the active membership then can still be found today. Miss Ariel Stewart remembered many of the names, such as, Avant, Armstrong, Byrd, Bennett, Bellew, Cox, Curry, Cowart, Cruthirds, Campbell, Dedeaux, Evans, Edwards, Fayard, Fritz, Grayson, Hale, Holley, House, Hobert, Husley, Jordan, Johnson, Jones, King, Lee, McNeal, Miles, McQueen, Meyers, O'Neal, Peterson, Reed, Rouse, Ramsay, Richards, Ross, Rushing, Stewart, Stiglets, Smith, Scarborough, Saucier, Taylor, Ward, Walker, Welch, and Yelverton. PARKER FAYARD CEMETERY

On the Oaklawn property was a plot of ground set aside for a cemetery where members of the family were buried. Members of the Fayard family placed a chainlinked (hurricane) fence around the graves and erected new headstones to replace the old cypress ones that had deteriorated. The cedars surrounding the area were trimmed and exposed roots were removed. Members of the Fayard and Parker families have maintained the area.(8)

Buried at the Parker/Fayard (Oaklawn) Cemetery were members of both the Alexis Fayard family and Rose Cecilia Fayard Parker family. Both Alexis C. Fayard (1788-1878) and his wife, Martha Ryan Fayard (1785-1893), were buried there. Martha was called Grandma Lexy and lived to be 108 years of age. Other members of the families buried there were Rose Cecilia Fayard Parker (1815-1887) and husband James Madison Parker (1801-1874); Louis Fayard (1825- ?) and wife Martha Bosarge Fayard (no dates); Jackson Fayard (no dates); Lavinia Parker Moran, wife of J. B. Moran, (1843-1894); Emily Parker (1845-1912); Ursand A. Parker (1853-1930) and wife Ada Mary Nelson Parker, born in England, (1869-1933); and two infants of Mary Armine (Fayard) and Captain John Krautter. Also buried in this cemetery was Captain H. C. Nelson (1838-1902) of Ireland who was the first husband of Ada (Nelson) Parker.

The loyal but freed slaves who remained on the grounds were buried outside the fenced area. The graves were not marked but the area was left undisturbed. The cemetery though now located on private property and off a private driveway is open to anyone wishing to visit.(8)

COALVILLE CEMETERY

The Coalville Cemetery was located immediately in front of the church. As trails became roads, a road separated the church from the cemetery. It was established about the same time the church was erected. It was common for faithful servants to be buried with or near the family or community they served. This was true of Coalville where the town's midwife was buried in 1912 with the tombstone inscription reading, "She served, we honor her." Her name was Eliza Williams.(20) Negro slaves also joined the church and were buried in a section of the cemetery. In 1946 through the efforts of Marjorie Stewart a chain linked fence replaced the old wire fence around the cemetery. The cemetery has remained under the supervision of the trustees of Coalville Methodist Church. One of the first cemetery caretakers was "Boss" Husley, father of Mrs. Charles (Mazie) Stewart. Mrs. Stewart has been caretaker since his death. Recently a perpetual care fund was established for the general upkeep of the grounds.

STIGLETS' LANDING

Born in 1853 on Lorraine Road near what is now the Mississippi Power Company, Joseph Stiglets was one of twelve children. The son of Austrian parents he worked as a young boy hauling wood chips from the shipyard at Stonewall on the Biloxi River. By the time he was 13 he had saved enough money to buy a small skiff. This was the beginning of a successful business man who later owned a fleet of schooners. He worked at the J. J. Cowart Sawmill at Handsboro which used small motor boats and schooners to transport wood from the mill to Ship Island to be boarded on ships for foreign ports. After a short period of time at the sawmill, he became captain of one of the boats and later bought the schooner "McCaffery." He next built a grocery store located on what would later be called Stiglets' lake. When he married Melissa Stewart, his father-in-law, James Avant Stewart, gave him a piece of land on the lake. Here he made his home and established a general merchandise store. Mr. Stiglets used the schooners to freight stock to his store. After purchasing another schooner, "Albert Baldwin," he freighted charcoal and turpentine down the river and on to New Orleans. About this time a bridge washed out on the road from Mississippi City, Mississippi. Mr. Stiglets established a ferry service to accommodate the people of the community.

Because his business was expanding, a warehouse was built for the storage of wool. The wool was placed in 300 pound bags and stored until the next schooner arrived to transport it to New Orleans. As many sheep herders in the district came quite a distance to load their wool, Mr. Stiglets allowed them to stay at his place while conducting business with him.

His home was the center of activities. Colonel Hardy spoke to 3000 people at this place in the 1890's when he wished to establish the Gulf and Ship Island Railroad to Gulfport. The post office which had been at Stonewall was moved down river to Stiglets' landing and named Woolmarket. It was at that time that the community got its name although Woolmarket was never officially declared a town.

Mrs. Melissa (Stewart) Stiglets was credited with establishing many annual events. The annual picnic attracted large crowds and was held near the home place. Picnic tables were furnished for the food. Bands played and flags flew for visitors coming to this annual event. Mrs. Stiglets operated a refreshment pavilion call the Busy Bees where she sold soft drinks, candy, etc. The profits made from the sales were used for the upkeep of the Coalville Cemetery. She established a fourth of July celebration where pageants, games, baseball, and fireworks were just a few of the activities.(14, 15)

Mr. and Mrs. Stiglets had eight children, seven girls and one boy who died in infancy. Mr. Stiglets built his home just before the Civil War began. The home was unique in that it contained a well inside the house where water could be obtained, using a drawn bucket, without going outside into the elements. The house also contained a lazy-susan table which was used by the family through many generations.(18) Mr. Joseph "Toomer" Stiglets was a prominent and wealthy merchant of Woolmarket. Of the original settlement at Stiglets' Lake on the Biloxi River only the home has remained. The home stayed in the Stiglets' family until the late 1970's.

STEWART FAMILY REUNION

The Stewart Family Reunion began in 1935. Grover C. Stewart came from Durango, Durango, Mexico to visit his family in Woolmarket, Mississippi. Mrs. W. C. Stewart had planned for several months to have all the family over to see him. Although she became ill with heart disease, she still insisted on having the reunion of her family as well as cousins and other Stewart relatives. Both Mr. and Mrs. Stewart were very ill when the eventful date of June 16, 1935 arrived. Mrs. Stewart was confined to the back porch and Mr. Stewart remained inside, while the reunion went on outside. Mrs. Stewart requested that all the family meet once a year even after she was gone. Mrs. Stewart died June 21, 1935 and Mr. Stewart died the following year on November 10, 1936.

The 1936 reunion actually started out as a surprise birthday party for George Stewart. His birthday was September 4 which happened to fall on the first Sunday of September that year. The Stewart clan was invited to the George Stewart home. After dinner John Stewart invited the Stewart clan to his house the next year. A tradition was born and became known as the Stewart Family Reunion.

From its conception until 1970, the reunion met at the host member's home. As attendance increased, the Palmer Creek Campground was obtained and the reunion has met there on the first Sunday of September since 1970.

At the 1941 reunion Mrs. Etta Stewart Ramsay made the suggestion that officers be elected to serve the Stewart Clan. Listed in this report are the annual Stewart reunions with host family and president.

SOUTHRONS, HEAR YOUR COUNTRY CALL YOU!

By ALBERT PIKE, of Arkansas.

Southrons, near your country call you!
Up! lest worse than death befall you!
To arms! To arms! To arms! in Dixie!
Let all the beacon-fires be lighted,
Let all hearts be now united!

To arms! To arms! To arms! in Dixie!
Advance the flag of Dixie!
Hurrah! hurrah!

For Dixie's land we'll take our stand,

And live or die for Dixie

To arms! To arms!

And conquer pence for Dixie!

To arms! To arms!

And conquer peace for Dixie!

Hear the Northern thunders mutter?
Northern flags in the South wind flutter:
To arms! etc.,
Spad them back your fierce defiance!
Stamp upon the accurs'd alliance!
To arms! etc.

Advance the flag of Dixie! etc.

Fear no danger! Shun no labor!
Lift up rifle, pike and sabre!
To arms! etc.

To arms! etc.

Shoulder pressing close to shoulder,
Let the odds make each heart bolder!
To arms! etc.

To arms! etc

Advance the flag of Dixie!

How the South's great heart rejoices
At your cannon's ringing voices;
To arms! etc.
For faith betrayed and pledges broken,
Wrongs inflicted, insults spoken;
To arm! etc.
Advance the flag of Dixie! etc.

Strong as lions, swift as eagles,
Back to their kennels hunt those beagles!
To arms! etc.
Cut the unequal bonds asunder!
Let them then each other plunder!
To arms! etc.
Advance the flag of Dixie! etc.

Swear upon your country's altar,
Never to submit or falter;
To arms! etc.

Till the spoilers are defeated,
Till the Lord's work is completed;
To arms! etc.

Advance the flag of Dixie! etc.

Halt not till our Federation
Secures among Earth's Powers its station!
To arms! etc.

Then at peace, and crowned with glory,
Hear your children tell the story!
To arms! etc.

Advance the flag of Dixie!

If the loved ones weep in sadness,
Victory soon shall bring them gladness;
To arms! To arms! To arms! In Dixie!

Exultant pride soon banish sorrow;
Smiles chase tears away to-morrow.
To arms! To arms! To arms! in Dixie
Advance the flag of Dixie!

Hurrah! Hurrah!
For Dixie's land we'll take our stand,
And live or die for Dixie!

To arrive! To arrive! X

And conquer needs for D-111

And conquer peace for Dixie!

To arms! To arms!
And conquer peace for Dixie!

Marianne Dickinson to Miss

Dear maese
I received your kind little letter of the 10th of July and was glad to hear from you all and especially to hear that you were well.
Well we are here as usual in Sweden much older still pleased with this phase
but have good reason to fear we have degenerated here and grow old & weak and filled
there is no pleasure that I have disappointed
meals that is so fine
that it is no use to talk about them for I have not started any yet. We have many more yet and doubt know when we will get any there is nine companies of our regiment in camp here at this place we are all here

doing nothing only drilling you well Sylvester has been sick but he is a getting well again there is some sickness in our regiment but its mostly measels there is two men that died here
one died yesterday and the other one died last night all of our company is in fact some of them has the measels but they are getting well give my love to all the family and also to ~~the~~ your Grand mother and Grand father you will kiss them for me your uncle Sylvester and William and also Henry ^{sends their} love

I believe I have given you all the news only
I want you to learn that song so that you can sing it when we go back I have no more at present believe me

Miss Joe Groves Becomes Bride Of
Clifford Pittman At Quiet Ceremony

Miss Joe Groves, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Groves, became the bride of Clifford Pittman at a quiet single ring ceremony Thursday evening. The Rev. Ray Rust performed the ceremony at his apartment and the service was witnessed by the immediate families of the bride and groom. The couple left immediately afterward for New Orleans where they will make their home.

The Fort Bayou Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Ernest Mallette Tuesday. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The many friends of Mrs. Dryden Walker and daughter, Miss Rita Joe Walker, regret to lose them from our community. They moved to Jackson Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ramsay are happy to have as guests their daughter, Mrs. Barbara Lockard, and twin daughters from Ohio.

Mrs. Adeline Havens and

PASCOULA CHRONICLE STAR and MOSS POINT ADVERTISER

guests of Mrs. N. W. Ramsay Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roszell had as supper guests Saturday night the Rev. and Mrs. Ray Rust.

Mrs. Virgie McMikel of Hattiesburg was a recent guest of the Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Alsworth at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Morris and Ann visited in New Orleans during the weekend.

Mrs. Olin Davis and daughters have returned from a visit to Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stewart and son visited relatives in Pascagoula on Saturday.

The regular monthly library meeting will be held in the school library Friday night.

Ranger Red Strange was supper

guest on Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Murphy, Jr.

Mrs. Bertha Roberts is visiting in Opelika, Ala.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Patrick and children were Mobile visitors Saturday.

Pfc. Harry Beamon Mallette is being shipped back to the States from Korea for an operation.

The entire community was deeply grieved to learn of the tragic death of one of our former residents, Mrs. Herman

Stewart of Pascagoula. Mrs. Stewart will be remembered here as Margaret Ryals better known as "Peggy". Sympathy is extended to the bereaved family in Pascagoula and to the two sisters here, Mrs. Burton Roberts and Mrs. H. D. Morris. She was laid

THE MISSISSIPPI

FACES OF THE COAST

Nicole LaCour Young/The Mississippi Press

Kimberly Stewart

Kimberly Stewart has worked in the Jackson County Chancery Court Administration Office since February. She loves the low-stress atmosphere and enjoys the people she works with. Stewart said her work is not difficult and didn't require much training. "They just showed me what needed to do and I did it," Stewart loves to sing and is involved in her church, the Assembly of Praise in Pascagoula. "When I'm not at work, I'm at church," Stewart said. Along with her husband, Scottie, Stewart credits her church community and her pastor, Donald Tubbs, as the sources of strength in her life.

OLD STEWART-STUART CEMETERY – MASTER LIST

Established 1838 or before: Earlier burials may be discovered in time. Argie Stewart has been misquoted as saying that Daniel N. Stewart who died in 1856 was the first person buried here. I questioned Argie in 1999 and he said Daniel's was the first grave he knew about. Argie and others have said that the Stuarts were here earlier than the Stewarts. Polly Stewart Ray, author of "Bilbo and Kin" and a great great granddaughter of Hiram Stewart and Frances Bounds and Mrs. Lena Mae Amacker another descendant and author of several genealogy books including "Hiram Stewart and Frances Bounds", "Ebenezer Prentis Stewart" and Rosemary Lovell compiler of "Hampton S. Stewart and Sarah Ann Bourne" and "Daniel Stewart and the Girls" have all told me that STUARTS were living in this area and buried in this cemetery before Hiram Stewart arrived in this area in 1838. (Ref. Deed, Old Cooper and Davenport Claim, land sold to Hiram Stewart by Elias Wallis. Argie told me that our ancestor known as "Granny Clark", the mother of Hiram Stewart is also buried here. "Granny's" death was caused by a fall from horseback on February 12, 1854, along the Old Gainesville to Columbia Road nearby. Today's Highway #43 was built on portions of this old Indian-to-wagon-trail between Columbia, MS and Gainesville on the Gulf Coast. AT that time the only other cemetery nearby was the Old Wheat Family cemetery closer to Crossroads. Burials were done as quickly as possible in those days due to the lack of funeral homes like we have today for the preparation and embalming of a body.

LOCATION: This cemetery was always and is a family-owned cemetery. It is east of MS Highway #43, 10.5 miles north of the intersection of Highway #26 (Bogalusa highway) at Crossroads, west of Poplarville, Pearl River County, Mississippi. Mrs. Cecil Walley of Wesley Chapel Methodist Church just a quarter mile to the south reported that when the first Wesley Chapel church was established, this burial ground served as the church's first burial ground.

Finding Your Ancestor's grave: It will be necessary to use the map, along with the master list to locate Your ancestors' graves because the great majority of markers are missing or destroyed. If your family would like to have a replacement marker put down for your ancestor, this would be most welcome.

If you are familiar with previously recorded and numbered lists, you will note the numbering system has been changed. This is because I began with only 59 known and identifiable graves and to date, 129 have been located. Throughout the recording process I gratefully used earlier recordings by Oree Bounds, Judy Burge, Mardi Kelly & Betty Davis, Cecil & "Pamp" Stewart and others as a guide. I am especially grateful to those who made those recordings available to me.

In order that an idea of each individual's kinship might be known, I have taken the liberty of providing very brief kinships for each, whenever I could. I am indebted to many people for their help in doing this. Any corrections, changes, etc., should be directed to: Sara D. Sheldon, 15615 White Fawn Drive, San Antonio, Texas 78255 sarads@satx.rr.com.

Numbering: Row #1 begins at the gate which is at the west end of the cemetery. Grave numbers also begin at that point. Numbers are from left to right, or from south to north sides of the cemetery.

"Probably" designates a grave I was told by direct descendants marked the sport of their ancestor. The word is also used when my old recording back in 1959 was questioned.

Begin Row #1. Unless other burials are discovered, Grave #1 is almost at the middle of this row.

Grave #1 Probably:
 Mary Louise Stuart

Died May 13, 1932
Son of James Allen Stuart and Sarah Byrd Stuart

Grave #3 James Calvin Stuart
Born February 1886
Died July 31, 1906
Son of Joseph E. Stuart and Mary Louise Stewart, daughter of George Washington Stewart. The grave is an unidentified mound with stob markers. (See Stockstill's book, I Is Harvey, I Is, pg 131)

Grave #4 Elizabeth "Lizzie" Stuart Walker
Born February 8, 1885
Died April 17, 1903
Wife of Ursin Walker. After Lizzie died, U. Walker married her sister, Ann Stuart (grave #5)
D/O Joseph Elijah Stuart and Mary Louise Stewart
"Safely anchored in the harbor of eternal rest."

Grave #5 Ann Stuart Walker
Born 1888
Died 1936
Sister of "Lizzie" Stuart (Grave #4).
2nd Wife of U. Walker.

Other siblings were: Prentiss Griffin Stuart, Sarah Jane Stuart, Stuart, James Calvin Stuart, Ann Stuart, Dr. Robert E Lee Stuart, George Turner Stuart, Louise Stuart and J. Forrest "Rat" Stuart. When Ann's sister "Lizzie" died, Ann married her brother-in-law, Ursin Walker. Children of Ann and Ursin Walker were:

Mary E. Walker
Victor Lee Walker
Lucille Walker
Hazel Walker
Ursin Stuart Walker

Stuart historical notes: Polly Ray stated in her book "Bilbo and Kin" that there were STUARTS in this area before HIRAM STEWART arrived in 1838-39. Records substantiate her statement. Mrs. Amacker says, "One section of the Stewart cemetery has two children of Joseph Elias Stuart (son of James). Records of the cemetery taken before Hurricane Camille 1969, show that James A. (Allen) Stuart and his wife, Sarah (nee Byrd) were buried here. After extensive damage done by hurricane Camille, their markers were removed to Byrd's Chapel Cemetery south of Crossroads. However, Judy Burge said that the two slabs in the Stuart area near the gate are where they were originally buried and were probably placed there to prevent someone being buried on top of their remains.B

Daughter of Joseph Richard and Flora STRICKLAND VINCE

Note: Per Amacker, Patricia Formby told her that markers for this couple are at Byrd's Chapel Cemetery and that markers for James Allen Stuart's parents, James Arthur Stuart are also Grantham Cemetery in Lamar County, MS. One of their sons, William Seaborn Stuart married Elizabeth Grantham; However, earlier records of Polly Stewart Ray indicate that James Arthur and Mary Vince Stuart were buried at Old Stewart Cemetery and remain there. She was a widow on 1830 census for Marion County, MS. Age 50 on 1850 census with sons, William 213 and Jas. 21.

Grave #8 James Arthur Stuart Born 1785
Died 1838
First married Susannah Warren
Second married Mary Vince
Probable Father of James Stewart was Charles Stuart or Stewart. We find his name spelled both ways. In the 1812 Tax Roll for Greene County, MS it is spelled "Stewart".

Note: From the records of Cecil and Frances "Pamp" Stewart,
John Moody's first wife, Clarinda Wheat, were their grandparents.

Grave #55 Rebecca Nichols

Dates Needed

Rebecca was the 2nd wife of John M. Moody.

Grave #56 Clarinda Wheat Moody – probably

Born April 15, 1820

Grave #59 Frances Bounds Stewart

Born 1801

"Wife of Hiram Stewart

Died Jan 11, 1891

90 years

"Honored, Beloved, and Wept.

Here Mother Lies".

Daughter of William Bounds (ca.1765-1845) and Fereby
Dearman (Born 1773).

Notes: For decades many people have recorded this old, broken tombstone as being the one for Hiram Stewart. We know now that this marker is Frances'. It puts her to her husband's right, just as other husband and wife burials in the cemetery. The dates agree with the Census records– except for 1850 - when someone gave Frances' and Hiram's ages incorrectly, according to Mrs. Amacker. You will see in the photo of these two graves that Jewel and Norman Mitchell found pieces in 2005, added them, then took digital photos.

In almost every Stewart genealogy for this couple the dates had been reversed. If you have one of the Stewart books, please correct the dates.

 "Husband of
 Frances Stewart
 Died Sep. 11, 1861
 Age 66 years
 "May the Resurrection Find Thee
 In the Bosom of Thy God."

 Son of Mary Griffin Stewart Griffin Clark
 Also known as "Granny Clark".

Grave #61 unknown female

Grave #62 unknown male

Please note: Although I have numbered these two graves 61 and 62, there appear to be a two burials in between Frances Stewart and Hiram Stewart. The large space we see between Hiram and Frances today has been caused by all the digging having been done in the cemetery over the years, looking for "fool's gold". My best guess would be that Frances' tomb is in about the right place – closer to the center of the cemetery – and that Hiram's is the one displaced the most. I will be doing some careful dowsing in this immediate area the week of the ceremony this April. If we determine who is in graves #61 and #62, corrections can be made to this cemetery record. We can simply add the names besides the numbers.

Many of you will recall having seen this cemetery recorded and put on the Internet and have noticed the older numbering system. You will also note the numbers have changed or not given at all. This record is an update. You are the only ones with this update. I will make a genuine effort to coordinate your information with all who have purchased copies of the cemetery book. I sincerely ask your forgiveness for any mistakes I have made.

Note: My mother was Verna Louise Stewart, daughter of Jesse Stewart and Martha Ora Byrd. Jesse Stewart was the son of Hampton Stewart and Sarah ann Bourne. Hampton was the son of Hiram Stewart and Frances Bounds. Hiram Stewart was the son of "Granny Clark", who was my 4th Great Grandmother. I grew up tramping over this old cemetery and wondering if anybody cared about it anymore. I guess the fine full-scale Confederate Ceremony in April of 2006 settled that.
